

TO ALL EDUCATORS

Join museum guard Bill Carver for a 45 minute interactive presentation as he gives us a tour of the African-American Portrait Gallery.

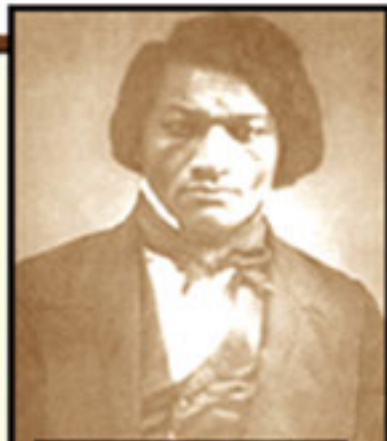

Real heroes such as Paul Robeson, Frederick Douglass and Garrett Morgan come to life in this fascinating show.

Your students will feel like they actually toured the Museum and come away inspired by the heroes and heroines showcased in this entertaining and educational theatrical experience.

Adaptable for Grade 4 through Adult and almost any venue from traditional stage to cafeterias.

Study guides and curriculum materials satisfying all FCAT and Sunshine State standards are available.

Available year-round for day or evening performances.

The African-American PORTRAIT GALLERY:

Discovering Timeless Heroes

A One Man
Show Starring
Award-Winning
Actor
LARRY ROBINSON

written and directed by Elizabeth Perry

Call early to reserve a date for your organization's performance!

Booking Information, Reservations and Fees:

World Arts - a division of Development Associates International, Inc.

WorldArts@DAInt.org 954-893-0123 www.DAInt.org